You and Your Leadership Skills

FIRE COMMAND OFFICERS SUPERVISORY TRAINING

May 7-8, 2025

Mt. Pleasant Comfort Inn & Suites Hotel & Conference Center

Join us for this third in three workshops focusing on the challenges, best practices, and supervisory skills necessary for effective fire command leadership. You, your style, and what works for you and against you are the central theme of this workshop.

Regardless of whether you participated in the previous two workshops, you will find this workshop immensely valuable!

New topics include:

- You and Your Style of Leadership.
- How you communicate and why It does not always work.
- Approaches for making your style work for you and the team you lead.

Hosted at the Comfort Inn Conference Center in Mt. Pleasant, MI, on May 7-8, 2025, this event is designed specifically for full and part-time fire service leaders.

Led by Dr. Lewis G. Bender, this two-day workshop will cover all new topics crucial to overcoming the modern challenges faced by fire command officers. You will gain insights into defining effective supervisory practices, understanding your leadership style through the DISC profile, building and sustaining an effective team, and effectively communicating with multiple personalities.

- Cost is $425 per person and covers these meals:
Monday: Lunch and a reception; Tuesday: Full breakfast, break snacks, and lunch.
